

British Values in Music

Individual Liberty

Within our lessons students are taught about self-discipline and that to be successful you must work hard, show resilience and have a growth mind-set that anything can be achieved if you put your mind to it. Lessons provide opportunities for pupils to express themselves freely in composition and performing tasks.

Democracy

Within lessons students have the opportunity to express their opinions and these are respected by others. There may be votes to verify which song pupils wish to perform in concerts and there is an annual Last Choir Standing in which overall winners of Key Stage 1 and Key Stage 2 are voted for.

Mutual Respect

Individuals are encouraged to make sensible and informed choices in lessons and to take ownership and leadership for this. This is demonstrated through ensuring the working environment is safe. They are encouraged to respect everyone's abilities and performances during lessons and give feedback sensitively. Children develop respect and greater understanding of differences.

Tolerance

In music, our pupils listen to and learn about the music of other faiths and cultures and how music is used in different cultures and faiths. They are able to compare similarities and differences between music in a variety of times and cultures and to reflect on and celebrate differences between themselves and others. Children are taught to understand and respect other cultures and beliefs. Opportunities are given in our music lessons for children to show how music can bring people together and enable them to share experiences.

The Rule of Law

During Music lessons and assemblies pupils will be exposed to a variety of National Anthems.
